

Republic of the Philippines
 Department of the Interior and Local Government
 Philippine Public Safety College
PHILIPPINE NATIONAL POLICE ACADEMY
 Camp General Mariano N. Castañeda,
 4118 Silang, Cavite

PNPA Announces the Hiring of Guest Professors for First Semester of Academic Year 2013-2014.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education:

Must possess a Doctorate or at least a Master's Degree or its equivalent in Law, Political Science, English, Mathematics, Humanities, Social Sciences and any other discipline related to Public Safety and Social Defense.

Work Experience:

At least three (3) years of teaching experience in their respective field of expertise is required.

Language:

Fluency in English (both written and oral) is a must.

How to apply:

Qualified applicants may submit their application folder (Tab A. Letter of intent to teach indicating therein the Subject Code; Tab B. Resume; Tab C. Clearances, such as Police, NBI and Court, TAB D. Neuro-Psychiatric Test Result and TAB E. Drugs Test Result) to the Dean, Academic Affairs Department, Philippine National Police Academy, Camp General Mariano N. Castaneda, Silang, Cavite NLT April 30, 2013 or email at PNPA_ACAD@yahoo.com

LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE (LAL)

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
LAL 101	Communication Arts 1 (English Grammar and Composition 1)	This subject is the study of the English language and its proper usage: grammar and sentence construction. Topics include: the sentence and its parts; the parts of speech; phrases; clauses; writing paragraph; punctuation; and capitalization.
LAL 102	Filipino (Wika at Panitikan)	Ang asignaturang ito ay pag aaral ng Wikang Filipino; Ang mga bahagi ng pananalita; ang pangungusap at mga bahagi nito; ang sugnay; at ang wastong pagsusulat ng talata. Ang pag aaral ng panitikan ay pagtatalakay ng pagpapayaman ng ating sariling kultura. Ang mga sumusunod ay bahagi ng pag aaral; ang pagtalakay sa katuturan ng panitikan at mga mahahalagang akda na nagkakaroon ng malaking kasaysayan at ideolohiya ng daigdig; ang kapaligirang pangkasaysayan ng ating panitikan; ang pananakop ng mga Kastila at naging epekto nito sa ating panitikan at wika sa pananampalataya at kaugalian; ang panahon ng propaganda: ang kapaligirang pangkasaysayan ng panahong ito at ang mga mahahalagang akda ng mga propagandista; ang pagtalakay sa Panahon ng mga Amerikano; na kinakitaan ng laganap na interest ng mga Filipino sa wikang Ingles at ang pagsulat ng wikang ito.

LAL 204	Communication Arts 3 (Public Speaking & Argumentation and Debate)	The subject focuses on the study of public speaking: argumentation and debate with emphasis but not limited to: the components of a speech act; the speaker; the message; the audience; channels; feedback; settings; and the snags in the speech delivery and overcoming strategies; the fundamentals in conducting argument and debate; the process in argumentation; the fallacies in argumentation; the purposes and value of debate; the types of debate; and the process in choosing and proposing a debate topic.
LAL 306	Communication Arts 5 (Technical Writing)	This course is focused on the general concepts of standard investigative communication with emphasis on the elements of correct grammar and mechanics; principles of opposite, clear and concise investigative report writing; format and contents; presentation and interpretation of crime statistics; and essentials of narrative reporting forms and its application.
LAL 307	Communication Arts 6 (Investigative Report Writing)	This subject deals with the study of the principles of good report writing namely: brevity, clarity, completeness and accuracy; the mechanics and techniques; the format and content; character and action in presenting the facts sequentially and essentials of narrative forms and application. Presentation of the investigative report covers the initial and advance investigative report writing and progress of follow up reports. This also involves briefing and conferences to support a case in criminal inquiry in basic and advanced investigative report writing.

MATHEMATICS AND NATURAL SCIENCES (MNS)

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
MNS 101	Mathematics 1 (College Algebra)	The subject is the study of axioms and sets of numbers; the fundamentals operations of algebra; factoring complex fractions; radical systems of linear and quadratic equations; inequalities; functions and relations; mathematical induction; progressions; binomial theorem; and theory of equations; and partial fractions.

MNS 204	Natural Science 1 (Physics)	The subject is an introduction to the fundamentals of mechanics; vectors; equilibrium, rectilinear, and rotational motion; the Newton's law; work, energy impulse and momentum; electricity and heat transfer.
MNS 305	Natural Science 3 (Ecology and Environment protection)	This subject is the study of the relationship of organism to its environment. Topics to be discussed are: the scientific method of ecology; homeostasis and adaptation; the key processes of photosynthesis; assimilation and decomposition processes as basis for ecological processes; the ecosystem; human disturbances; various environmental problems; and the study of the pertinent laws (air, water, land).

HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES (HSS)

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
HSS 101	General Psychology	The subject is the study of human behavior. It includes motivation and adjustment; drives and motivation; feelings and emotion; frustration and conflict; learning and forgetting; the aptitude; and the various types of personality; the social influences on behavior.
HSS 102	Philosophy 1 (Logic)	This subject is the study of logical reasoning; the basic concepts of critical reasoning and analysis in a brief and straightforward manner; identifying and evaluating arguments; testing causal claims; detecting and resolving vagueness and ambiguity; the meaning of logical and how to use logical reasoning in decision making; and the study of developing the five skills in logical reasoning namely: writing logically, detecting inconsistency and lack of clarity in a group of statements, spotting issues and arguments, detecting and avoiding fallacies (reasoning errors) and generating and improving arguments and explanations.
HSS 103	Socio-Anthropology (Society and Culture with Family Planning and AIDS Education)	The subject is the study of the social and development issues in the discipline of sociology and anthropology. Topics include: the culture and early origins of the preliterate societies; the application of sociology on anthropological findings; social living and its social interrelationships; the development of preliterate societies towards contemporary times; the social foundations of man; social organization; the major social institutions; and the human ecology.
HSS 206	World History	The course deals with the origin, development and growth of world's civilization from the ancient times to the present era. The lessons included have been designed with the dual purpose of helping the students to acquire a solid background of the past events and equally more important to help them to think more constructively about the significance of those events for the difficult times in which we live now. The influences of historical development in the world will be analyzed to help the students understand how these shaped the lives of people in the world community.

--	--	---

CORE PROFESSIONAL SUBJECTS (CPS)

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
CPS 101	Fundamentals of Public Safety and Social Defense	The subject of the different components of public safety and social defense including the primary bureaus of public safety service namely: the Philippine National Police (PNP), Bureau of Jail Management and Penology (BJMP), and the Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP). Topics included are the mission, vision and functional objectives of the tree (3) bureaus; the foundation of the tree (3) PS bureaus; the concepts and tools in formulating a framework for public safety and social defense policies and strategies; and contemporary issues in PS service.
CPS 205	Law 1 (Criminal Law 1- Book 1)	The analytical study of Articles 1-113 of the Revised Penal Code (as amended) and analytical study of relevant cases.
CPS 206	Information System and Technology	This subject is concerned with the technology and its aspects of managing and processing information with the use of Word, Excel and PowerPoint presentation especially in large organizations. In particular, IT deals with the use of electronic computers and computer software to convert, protect process, transmit, and retrieve information.
CPS 207	Criminalistics 1 (Dactyloscopy)	This subject is the study of the fundamentals of Dactyloscopy. Topics included: finger, palm and footprints impressions through the Bertillon, Henry Galton and Scotland System; scientific methods and techniques of lifting latent prints; poroscopy; principles and use of instrumentation in fingerprinting identification.
CPS 208	Criminalistics 2 (Forensic Chemistry and Toxicology)	The study and application of forensic chemistry and criminal toxicology in the examination of physical evidence. Topics include: study of blood, semen, gunpowder and explosives, hair and fibers, glass fractures, moulage, metallurgy and petrography; and isolation, identification and classification of poisons.
CPS 209	Politics and Governance with	The subject deals with the study of the 1987 Philippine Constitution; he territorial jurisdiction

	Philippine Constitution	of the Philippine; the declaration of the principles and state policies; the fundamental rights and freedom; enumerated in the Bill of Rights; and the right of suffrage. It also includes the study of the three branches of the government; the legislative department; executive department and the judicial department; the provisions on the constitutional commissions; the accountability of public officers; and the general provisions.
CPS 317	Law 3 (Criminal Evidence)	The study of the following but not limited to Rules on Evidence; the general provisions of evidences in court; privileged communication; the burden of proof and presumption; presentation of evidences; and the weight and sufficiency of evidence.
CPS 318	Law 4 (Criminal Procedure with Moot Court)	The study of the following but not limited to; the rules of criminal procedures; prosecution of offenses; rights of the accused; and procedures of search and seizure. The subject is the study of the following: demeanor before trial: demeanor inside and outside the courtroom; relationship with the parties; use of notes; questioning; common cross-examining techniques and duties in orderly court. Mock Court shall be the practical exercise of the subject.
CPS 319	Criminal Investigation with Basic SOCO Procedure	This subject covers the general principles of criminal investigation; the process of obtaining information from complainants, witnesses, informants and suspects; and the interview and interrogation techniques.
CPS 320	Research 1 (Fundamentals of Research with Thesis Proposal Defense)	The subject deals with the study of introduction to research. Topics include: the guidelines in the selection of a research problem; the importance, purposes and functions of related literature; the characteristics of historical, descriptive and experimental research; the analysis and interpretation of data; and the summary, conclusions and recommendations of the study.
CPS 321	Introduction to National Security Administration	The subject is the study of external defense; political role; the counter-insurgency campaign; recruitment of personnel; defense spending and industry; intelligence and security agencies; public order and internal security; the communist insurgency; ideology and strategy; development of the revolutionary movement; leadership and organization; political organization and front groups; military operations and tactics; financing and foreign support; crime; law enforcement; penal law;

		criminal procedure and the correctional system.
--	--	---

POLICE MAJOR SUBJECTS

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
PMS 401	Law Enforcement Operations 1 (Patrol Operations and Management)	Study of the objectives of police patrol operation; basic field patrolling procedures; types of patrolling and tactics; Patrol Unit responses; and community-patrol team partnership.
PMS 402	Law Enforcement Operations 2 (Police Community Relations, Law Enforcement Ethics and Media Relations)	Study of the following: RA 6713; RA 3019; law enforcement ethics; police gratuity, shakedown, perjury, brutality, profanity, etc. influence of media in policing; disclosure of information; biases and the media.
PMS 403	Law Enforcement Operations 3 (Drug Enforcement, Vice Control and Organized Crime)	Subject is the study of RA 9165 and IRR; ED # 218; powers and duties of PDEA; duties and responsibilities of PNP vice control and organized crime units.
PMS 404	Law Enforcement Operations 4 (Traffic Management)	Study of the mission and functions of the PNP Traffic Management Group; traffic accident information system; traffic direction and control; functions and objectives of traffic engineering, enforcement and education.
PMS 405	Law Enforcement Operation 5 (Violence Against Women and Children)	Study of RA 9262 ("Anti-Violence Against Women and their Children Act of 2004"). An act of defining violence against women and their children, providing for protective measures for victims, prescribing penalties therefore and for other purposes.
PMS 406	Law Enforcement Operations 6 (Interpol Operation and Transnational Crimes)	Study of Interpol; Interpol's structure; Interpol's three (3) case functions; public safety and terrorism; other crime areas; the PCTC; local and international laws pertinent to transnational crimes.

FIRE PROTECTION MAJOR SUBJECTS (FMS)

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
FMS 401	Fire Operations 1 (Introduction to Fire Service, Community and Media Relations)	The subject is the study of the BFP structure; major programs; program thrusts; Fire Code of the Philippine; RA 6541 (National Building Code); fire situation; organizing community groups and meetings neighborhood policing; methods of identifying community problems: observation, experiential, complaints, crime mapping, reports, surveys; influence of media in policing; disclosure of information; biases and the media; the media and public confidence; and violence and the media;
FMS 402	Fire Operations 2	A comprehensive study of PD 1185, otherwise

	(Fire Code of the Philippines)	known as the Fire Code of the Philippines covering the enforcement and administration on fire safety inspections and building inspection requirements; the applicable rules on: combustible and flammable materials, incinerators and open burning, use of equipment, appliances, devices and vacant buildings; the classification of occupancy; means of egress; feature of fire protection; places of assembly and occupancies; the maintenance of exit ways; installation and maintenance of fire protection appliances; suppression control of hazardous fire areas; organizing company fire brigades; compressed gases; explosives, ammunition and blasting agents, fireworks; liquefied petroleum gases, fire extinguishers and rules on high rise buildings; the actions on violations and prosecutions procedures. This includes the study of other related laws like the Building Code and Electrical Code of the Philippines; requirements of structural, mechanical and electrical designs; MOA entered between Secretaries of DILG and DPWH and other agencies; work relations between local building officials with fire marshals in issuance of building permits & certificates of occupancies.
FMS 403	Fire Operations 3 (Fundamentals of Fire Prevention & Protection, Suppression & Control Operation)	A comprehensive study of theories and principles of fire, suppression and control system, fundamentals and procedures of firefighting techniques; types and use of portable fire extinguishers and automatic sprinkler systems; fire company apparatus procedures; techniques of forcible entry; ladder practices, hose practices and evolutions; importance of radio, signals and communication procedures; preparation of pre-fire plan; fire prevention education; and importance of mass media.
FMS 404	Fire Operations 4 (National Building Code)	A comprehensive study of first aid and practical application; basic and advance cardiac life support; chain of survival in emergencies; emergency medicine in disasters; dealing with hazardous materials; preparedness for bio-terrorism and mass casualty incident handling; jungle and sea survival; rope rescue; emergency risk management; incident management and command system; high rise building and confined space rescue; also includes rescuer safety; proper use, care, testing and maintenance of self-contained breathing apparatus and other rescue equipment.
FMS 405	Fire Operations 5 (Fire Hydraulics, Apparatus and Equipment/Hazardous	A comprehensive study and familiarization of the different types of firefighting apparatus, equipment and accessories; water-pump operation, hydraulics and stream discharge Materials, Transportation Hazards & Weapons of Mass Destruction)	computation; maintenance; and servicing of fire trucks/vehicles; defensive driving, Land Transportation Office rules and regulations; fire trunk operator's guide during and after firefighting operations.

FMS 406	Fire Operations 6 (Philippine Electrical Code with Basic Circuits)	Basic understanding of the main cause of fire, "electrical". This includes the basic electrical circuits on structures such as residential and commercial in accordance with the Fire Code (RA 9514) and the Philippine Electrical Code).

JAIL MANAGEMENT AND PENOLOGY MAJOR SUBJECTS (JMS)

Subject Code	Subject Title	Description
JMS 401	Jail Operations 1 (Introduction to Jail Service Management, Community and Media Relations)	The subject is the study of the correctional models of management; jail food services; jail facilities management; jail financial operations; staff management; jail recreation and religious programs; education and vocational training and correction/mental and health care services.
JMS 402	Jail Operations 2 (Penal Management, Corrections & Rehabilitation)	The subject is the study of the correction and rehabilitation systems in jail/penal institutions. Topics include: the different approaches in treatment/rehabilitation of inmates; the goals of treatment and rehabilitation programs for inmates; inmates education and training; the anti-drug proliferation and drug rehabilitation programs for inmates; the treatment programs for sex offenders; and other related topics.
JMS 403	Jail Operations 3 (Institutional and Community-Based Corrections)	The subject focuses on the study of institution and community-based corrections; the organizational administration and operational functions. Topics include: the concept and underlying principles of community and institution-based corrections: history and significance in the correctional system; categories of offenders in community and institution-based corrections; approaches in rehabilitation/ correction; and the study of institution and community-based correction programs: pre/post conviction, diversion pre-trial release, third level release, third level alternatives, restitution and community services, temporary release, and the residential/half-way houses programs. The subject also deals with the study of probation, pardon and parole; the guidelines, advantages and disadvantages; the structures and operations; the evolution; history; and contemporary issues and trends; the probation and parole officer.

		The subject also deals with the study of probation, pardon and parole; the guidelines, advantages and disadvantages; the structures and operations; the evolution; history; and contemporary issues and trends; the probation and parole officer.
JMS 404	Jail Operations 4 (Inmates Welfare and Development, Rights and Privileges)	The subject discusses the existing rehabilitation services like provision for basic needs; health; livelihood; education; sports and recreation; visitation; para-legal; religious services and correctional counseling techniques. This subject also deals with the study of probation pardon and parole: the guidelines, advantages and disadvantages; the structures and operations; the evolution; history; and contemporary issues and trends; the probation and parole officer.
JMS 405	Jail Operations 5 (Custody, Security and Control, and Jail Incidents and Emergency Cases)	The subject is the study of security and control: safety and sanitation; inspection process; fire safety; firearms; control of keys; inmates processing: rights of the accused; supervision of inmates; fingerprinting and photographing of inmates; transporting of inmates and release of inmates.
JMS 406	Jail Operations 6 (Probation, Parole, Pardon, & Commutation of Sentence)	The subject is the study of the Board of Pardons and Parole; Presidential Decree 1990 and the Office of the Court Administrator Circular No. 66-97: application for probation, pardon and parole; revised rules and regulations of the Board of Pardons and Parole (Section 1-48); and Republic Act No.3815 (Probation Law).